Transparent and Robust Mechanism for Internal Assessments

The institute has a transparent and robust mechanism for conducting internal assessments with well-defined frequency and modes.

Multiple Modes of Assessment

- Two mid-term tests per semester are conducted at the college level for theory and practical exams. Surprise tests, online quizzes, seminars, and assignments are also given.
- Peer review of question papers is done and exams held under strict invigilation.
- Assignments are given at regular intervals and assessed. Workbooks, online quizzes after every class through IEMCRP software.
- Projects and seminars are also used for internal evaluation.

Ensuring Transparency

- Exam schedule notified well in advance and academic calendar strictly followed.
- Evaluation guidelines given to faculty for theory and practicals.
- Answer scripts shown to students for clarifications on evaluation. Chance for improvement tests.
- Marks displayed department-wise and submitted to COE. Strict deadline maintained.
- Parents invited to discuss student progress. Continuous monitoring done by mentors.

Boosting Performance Through Internal Assessment

- Helps upgrade academic performance and keep students motivated to attend classes.
- Innovative projects and presentations build creative skills.
- Seminars improve communication skills essential for interviews.
- Daily assessments allow teachers to evaluate students closely.
