REPORT : SEMINAR ON "WOMEN'S EMPOWERMENT"

Date:- 08/03/2023

Place:- Marathwada Institute of Technology, CIDCO

MIT College celebrated International Women's Day with great enthusiasm and dedication, recognizing the invaluable contributions of its female staff members. The event aimed to acknowledge and honor the achievements of women in various roles within the institution. The program was inaugurated by the principal Dr. Mahendra Kondekar emphasizing the significance of Women's Day and the need for gender equality.

The highlight of the celebration was the recognition of the college's female staff members. Each lady staff member was individually honored and presented with a token of appreciation for their dedication and hard work.

The Speaker of the programme Dr. Shashibal Rao focused on Women's Empowerment. She also focuses on Women's empowerment includes ensuring their physical and mental well-being. Access to healthcare services, reproductive rights, and awareness about health issues are crucial components. Addressing gender-specific health concerns and promoting overall wellness contribute to empowering women to lead healthy and fulfilling lives.

The programme aimed to showcase gratitude for their role in shaping the academic environment at MIT College. The Women's Day celebration at MIT College was a resounding success, fostering a sense of unity and appreciation within the institution. By honoring and acknowledging the contributions of its female staff, the college reinforced its commitment to gender equality and the empowerment of women in academia. The event served as a reminder that diversity and inclusion are essential for creating a thriving educational community.
